A big thumbs-up to star Legal Village blogger Mike Semple Piggot, who alerted your correspondent to the excellent work of Fetman Garland & Associate partner Corri Fetman - aka the Lawyer of Love in esteemed legal journal Playboy.

The famously upfront Fetman - the self-styled 'World's Hottest Divorce Lawyer' - is already notorious in the US for her firm's raunchy billboards, which put a thoroughly positive spin on the concept of divorce (typical slogan: 'Life is short. Get a divorce')

As well as writing a regular column for the classy gentleman's publication, Fetman has even disrobed for a photo special and recently revealed that the well-toned female body on display on the billboards is none other than her own.
